

Some patients will wish to know everything, other patients only some things and a smaller group will not want to know details about end of life at all - so ask.

